NatureAide V2 | Research Workflow

One complete researcher submission followed by one unified professional review.

Key rules

- Researchers may save drafts at any step, but cannot submit until all required steps are complete.
- No separate professional approval is required between research sections.
- The full submission is reviewed as one dossier by the assigned professionals.
- Reviewer feedback is consolidated into one decision. Revisions are resubmitted as a new version of the complete project.